

Counselor-Per-Diem (Residential Services - Stamford)

Responsibilities: Provides shift coverage, on an as needed basis, in a residential programs for people with addiction disorders.

Requirements: Previous education in a Drug & Alcohol Rehabilitation Counseling (DARC) or human services related program. At least one year of work experience in the addiction field, residential program experience preferred. Certification in Addiction Counseling (CAC), or plan to achieve CAC within 12 months of hire preferred. CPR Certification or eligible. Must have a work history that demonstrates the understanding of a consumer-driven delivery system, accomplishment, punctuality and the ability to work well with colleagues, Must have strong communications skills along with the interpersonal skills to work effectively at all levels of the organization and its stakeholders, Must be computer literate.

hr@liberationprograms.org